REGULAR MEETING, GALWAY TOWN BOARD, DECEMBER 14, 2010

Supervisor Hargrave stated that he received a request from the Court Clerk Linda Sarnowicz to swap time with the other Court Clerk Kelly Smith. Linda plans on going to Florida for three months and would like to swap hours with Kelly. Currently Linda is the Court Clerk for Justice Thomas-Oravsky & Kelly is the Court Clerk for Justice Clemens. She would like to have Kelly cover for the three months she is in Florida and when she gets back she will cover for Kelly for three months. Supervisor Hargrave stated that currently our Bookkeeper works from Florida from middle of December to late March. Alice's weekly pay is reduced by $25. per week. Information is faxed to Alice and she does everything on computer. Town Board didn't see a problem with arrangement for Court Clerk's as long as a report of days is kept for accuracy. Town Clerk questioned how emergency court matters would be handled in Linda's absence. She is the one contacted if something needs to be addressed immediately. The voice mail box is another issue with it filling up and needing to be emptied. Kelly has a full time job and doesn't come in during the day. Supervisor Hargrave will talk with Justice Clemens to see how these concerns can be addressed.

Supervisor Hargrave will contact Avaya our telephone system carrier to see if we can expand message capacity on voice mail. Councilman Tillson stated there were a few issues to discuss with telephone system carrier. Town of Galway still doesn't come up on Caller Identification for all lines at Town Hall. Storage capacity for voice mail needs to be increased. When system is down to update these issues with Avaya, Councilman Tillson felt it would be a good time to replace the USP.
